

College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) Exam Credit Guide

Credit will be granted only to those students who have completed less than 16 semester hours of college credit when the examination is taken. Credit will be awarded for only one economics exam (Macroeconomics or Microeconomics). UW–Madison does not award credit for CLEP foreign language exams.

CLEP Exam	Score	UW Credit/Course Equivalent
American Government	75	4 credits, Political Science 104
American Literature	75	3 credits, English literature electives
Analyzing and Interpreting Literature	75	3 credits, English 207
Biology	75	5 credits, biology electives
Calculus	75	5 credits, Math 221
English Literature	75	3 credits, English literature electives
Humanities	75	4 credits, humanities electives
Information Systems and Computer Applications	75	4 credits, Using Computers 132
Principles of Macroeconomics	75	4 credits, Economics 102
College Mathematics	75	4 credits, math electives
Principles of Microeconomics	75	4 credits, Economics 101
Natural Sciences	75	4 credits, natural science electives
Introduction to Psychology	75	4 credits, Psychology 201
Social Sciences and History	75	4 credits, social studies electives
Introduction to Sociology	75	3 credits, Sociology 211